ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE

Are you driven by success? A strategic-thinking, competitive person with an interest in marketing? Mid-West Family Northern Illinois has a career opportunity for a self-starting, growth-minded, problem-solver dedicated to growing themselves, their client's business, and their community as our next Account Executive.

We are the only locally-owned and employee-owned media company and content producer in the region. We'll empower you to leverage our successful brands, digital assets, influencers, and more to bring measurable results to area businesses and others. You'll work directly with businesses, non-profits, and area leaders to build integrated marketing campaigns. All while creatively telling their story, reaching audiences across radio, streaming, interactive websites and apps, and digital services including streaming TV, and much, much more.

Are you ready for a career in the fast-paced, exciting world of media marketing? This career offers a great deal of freedom while being a part of a company that follows core values focused on serving the community. Mid-West Family Northern Illinois provides you with extensive training and resources to create and sell strategic marketing campaigns and integrate them into our many platforms. This includes one-on-one and group training with our onboarding specialist, who is here to support your success and lead you toward professional growth.

In this position, you'll earn a steady salary and commission for your hard work. There is huge room for growth, career advancement, and promotion. Full benefits, including vacation, health benefits, 401k, and more. Do you see yourself as a marketer? Consider a career with Mid-West Family Northern Illinois!
